President Hickey, of Association, Believes in Developing Young Players.

Chicago, Jan. 7 .- "Beat the bushes" for new players, youngsters who have never had major league experience is one of the orders given by Thomas J. Hickey, new president of the American Association. It's President Hickey's plan to have each of the eight clubs carry four young players for speedy development. Sup-porters of the game, he believes, want to see the youngsters perform. They are be-coming weary, he thinks, of the old faces -players who have been dropped by the Yale Latest Quint to Bow Before Colliflower's Annapolis Team.

Annapolis, Md., Jan. 7.-The Navy basket-ball team, after lowering the col-ors of the Yale five on Saturday at An-napolis, is conceded to have one of the best quintets in the East. The Yale five, that has made such a splendid showing during the Christmas holidays, met its second defeat at the hands of Navy. The Navy basket tossers opened their season by trouncing the Johns Hopkins Independents to the tune of 59 to 16. Then the St. John's College five was met, but it, too, proved helpless before the Mid-dles. The final score was 26 to 16. George Washington University tried its shots against the Capital City team, but as the final whistle blew, Navy had the Senators by a big margin of 17 points, the total score being 34 to 17. The City College of New York, which has been cutting up on the court here of "late," fell befor Yale, and as the Blue machine was de feated by Navy yesterday, the Annapolis cagers might have the best team in the country. The record made by Navy thus ountry. The recar this season:

Navy, 28; St. John's, 16. Navy, 24; George Washington, 17. Navy, 24; New York City College, 23. Navy, 23; Yale, 21. Navy's next game is carded for next

GOLFERS TO SETTLE AMATEUR QUESTION

Annual Meeting Friday Expected to Find Solution to Serious Problem

New York, Jan. 7.-Serious matters of interest to every sportsman in America and particularly so to the solfer, will occupy the attention of the delegates to the annual business meeting of the United States Golf Association, which will convene at the Hotel Astor next Friday night. The dividing line between an ameteur and professional in any line of sporting endeavor is likely to be clearly and permanently defined by the assem-bled delegates, since a difference of opin-ion has existed for a year, and all are eager for some kind of definite settle-ment.

amateur rule in golf which states that an amateur golfer is one who does not make money directly or indirectly, through his proficiency in the sport there has been a lot of criticism. Especially has the Woodland Golf Club been active New Orleans, Jan. 7.—With the arrival oday of Billy Rocap, who has been Tewsbury, and John H. Sullivan, jr., three of the best Massachusetts golfers bers Are Pleased with Change.

New York, Jan. 7.—President David L. Fultz, of the Baseball Players' Frater-nity, stated that, while he had not seen a copy of the 1917 contract recently adopted by the major leagues, the reported change in the clause relating to payment to players injured on the ball field while incapacitated was highly satisfactory to both officers and members of the fraternity.
"I do not understand," said Fults, "the

If the conditions complained of have been removed, as stated, however, the method of reasoning is im-

"The dismissal of the requests that referred to conditions under the jurisdiction of the national association was broadly a semi-legal technicality. It will be followed by an appeal to the National Commission on the part of the fra-ternity from the resolutions of the na-tional association which will have the effect of bringing the entire matter before the commission again in the form of an

Bob Wallace, Favorite of Old, May Manage Memphis

Cleveland, Ohio, Jan. 7.—Bobby Wal-lace, old time Cleveland star, later man-ager of the St. Louis Browns, who has also tried his hand at umpiring, is want-ed by the Memphis club of the Southern Association, as manager, but from heat reports he had not been signed. Bobby was among those present at the American League's annual Chicago. He said he had received a number of offers to manage minor league teams, and was undecided just what he
